

Assumption Parish Library Summer Reading Program 2022 Guidelines and Rules

General Information

- Each participant is to visit the registered branch to receive an incentive.
- Participating schools will provide a dress-down pass to students who participate in the 2022 Summer Reading Program. The library will keep track of all participating students for proof of participation.
- Listeners, Readers, Tween and Teens must utilize the Assumption Parish Library books with the exceptions of books read or listened to during summer school and story time
- Young Adults and Adults must use books from the Assumption Parish Library System.
- Children from birth to twelve years of age must be registered by an adult.

Listeners

- Listeners are considered individual not yet reading age and individuals who are not reading independently.
- Listeners will receive an incentive after reading 10- books and each additional 10- books up to the set goal of 30 books.

Readers

- Readers are considered independent readers entering Kindergarten through 3rd grade in the upcoming school year.
- Readers will receive an incentive after reading 10 - books and each additional 10 - books up to the set goal of 30 - books.

Tween/Teen

- Tweens and Teens are considered independent readers entering 4th through 12th grades in the upcoming school year.
- Tweens and Teens are encouraged to read books that are at their reading level including chapter books, graphic novels, or non-fiction books.
- Tweens and Teens will receive an incentive after thoroughly reading one appropriate reading leveled book and each additional book up to three books.
- Parents and/or Library Clerks can advise Tweens/Teens on leveled books based on reading level and interest.

Adults

- Adults are considered ages 18 and older.
- Adults are required to choose an individual reading goal.
- Adults will receive an incentive after reaching the chosen goal.
- Adults are required to choose from the young adults or adult reading section.

Summer Reading Program Weekly Drawing Box

- Upon receiving the first incentive, the participant's name will be placed in the SRP reading box. Every Monday, starting June 18, A Reader of the Week will be drawn from the reading drawing box. The Reader of the Week's name will be placed back in the drawing box for chances to win prizes at the end of the program.

Summer Reading Program Ocean of Readers Drawing Box

- At the end of the SRP, all names in the grand prize box will be dumped into the Library System Ocean of Readers Drawing box located at the main branch (Napoleonville Branch Library). Names will be drawn from the Ocean of Readers Drawing Box and contacted on July 25, 2022, to pick up their incentives.