

Assumption Parish Library 2023 Summer Reading Program Guideline

Participants may register at any of the five library branches. This is the branch where they will participate. Participants ages 0-17 must be registered by an adult. One Reader of the week will be chosen per week per branch. All participants who earn their first incentive are eligible to participate in the grand prize drawing.

A certificate of participation will be given to participants (ages 0-17) upon receiving the first incentive.

Listeners

Listeners are considered individuals who are not reading independently. Books listened to at APL Story Times may be added to reading logs. Incentives will be awarded after listening to or reading 10- books and each additional 10- books up to 30 books.

Readers

Readers are considered independent readers between K-3rd grades. Readers will receive an incentive after reading or listening to 10 books and each additional 10- books up to 30 books.

Tween/Teen

Tweens and teens are considered independent between grades 4-12. Tweens and Teens are encouraged to read or listen to chapter books at their appropriate reading level. Tweens and Teens will receive an incentive after reading or listening to a chapter book and each additional chapter book up to 3-chapter books.

Adult (ages 18 and older)

Adults will receive an incentive after reading or listening to a chapter book and each additional chapter book up to 3-chapter books.
